LONDON, November 22, 2012, 1:05 pm -- /EPR NETWORK/ -- Burton has announced the winner of its recent competition for fans to win a trip to Las Vegas.

The competition was eventually won by Michael Horsfield from Lancashire, who will be jetting off to Nevada in April next year. Also included in the prize is a four night stay for two at the five star MGM Grand hotel as well as a £250 Burton voucher, which can be spent online or in store.

When he found out he had won, Mr Horsfield said: "I can't believe that I won the competition - you never think that these things are going to happen to you. I can't wait to go to Vegas, it such an amazing city with so much going on, I'm sure it's a holiday that I will remember forever. Thank you so much Burton."

The competition took place to mark the launch of Burton's partnership with Amir Khan who was the face of the company and its great British style campaign. Burton and Khan started working together in early 2012, with the boxer showcasing the retailer's Spring/Summer slim fit men's suits collection.

Burton customers had to enter the competition through the company's Facebook page. The trip to Las Vegas will allow the winner to explore Nevada's most populous city and famous tourist hotspot. The city is only just over 100 years old but is now filled with luxury casinos and hotels. Las Vegas is famed for its thrilling nightlife, with musical icons such as Bette Midler and the world famous magician David Copperfield being just some of the stars performing in the city daily.
