Press Release Author = mediaVinci

Industry = Internet & Online

Press Release Summary = "mediaVinci" has launched an internet shopping site offering premium website templates and print layouts under the website address www.pixel-templates.com.

Press Release Body = "mediaVinci - The art of invention" based in Bourg Saint Bernard, France is offering their customers a collection of pre-designed templates for print and web. The internet shopping site www.pixel-templates.com is a valuable resource for website designers, graphic designers, web developers, freelancers, agencies, IT and software related companies.

The customizable web site templates were executed with precision and detail. The presented web templates contain clean html code, several web page layouts, a customizable contact form and all necessary and ready for use css styles for headlines, text paragraphs, background colors and website graphics. The well-executed layouts allow customers to edit and adapt the web pages in full wysiwyg mode (what you see is what you get) by using industry standard web editors.

Thus, customers are able to focus entirely on the content of their website. Text, photos and other media files can be easily imported into the customizable designs. The multiple page layouts save customers a considerable amount of time for developing a professional company or personal website.

The internet shopping site www.pixel-templates.com is offering several website content specific design templates such as:

- Business Website Templates
- Wedding Website Templates
- Portal Website Templates
- Magazine Website Templates
- Resume Website Templates
- Photography Website Templates
- Music Website Templates
- E-commerce Website Templates
