Press Release Summary: Henley Management College beats business schools around the globe to achieve a world top 10 position as a provider of MBAs in the Economist Intelligence Unit 07 rankings

Press Release Body: Henley Management College acknowledged as a world top 10 provider of Full-Time MBAs by a leading industry poll.

The Economist Intelligence Unit 07 rankings officially released their annual rankings at the end of September and placed Henley as overall 10th in the world and 5th in Europe for the quality of their MBA. Henley ranked higher than many other world leading business schools including Harvard, London Business School, SAID, CASS and INSEAD.

Christopher Bones, Principal of Henley Management College commented, "This is an outstanding achievement for Henley. To be ranked above the traditional world-class business schools is outstanding. This ranking is particularly important to us as it not only considers information and data supplied by Henley but also alumni and current programme members complete the questionnaire, therefore what we say is reinforced by the experience of individuals who study here.

"The ranking recognises those elements that we know are important to individuals when considering an MBA provider – quality of faculty, potential to increase salary, networking opportunities. In all of these sub-categories Henley ranked within the top 2 business schools in the world.

"Our Full Time MBA has been completely overhauled to deliver a heightened learning experience. What other opportunity enables you to work in three continents on company-based projects in high performance learning groups all within 11 months!

"This ranking recognises the significant contribution that Henley makes to management development on a worldwide scale."

The college was also proud to achieve fantastic results in a variety of sub-categories such as number 1 in the world for Personal development and educational experience, Student Quality, Breadth of Alumni Networks, and number 2 in the world for Final Salary
