Press Release Body: Who hasn't seen the press about all the muggings, rapes and killings in cities across the United States? Have there been any of these crimes in your city or town? Have you personally been affected by crime? Do you know anyone attending college today? Can you imagine the fear they are experiencing? Are you afraid to walk along down a street or in a parking garage? Is anyone you know looking for ways to adequately protect themselves?

Today, everyone is touched, one way or another, by crime. They have either been faced with crime or know someone that has. The larger
