Press Release Summary: We specialize in providing the Taser C2 personal protection device to protect your home, family and businesses.

Press Release Body: Elkton, Maryland - March 22, 2008 -- Markansas Enterprises has launched another website to serve the general public in the areas of personal safety and self defense. This time, however, Markansas Enterprises has created a website that will also provide everyone over the age of 18 a way create a business of their own. The owner of Markansas Enterprises asks our citizens the following questions. "Why the recent craze with the product called the Taser C2? Do you personally know of anyone who has ever held a Tupperware® party or a candle party? Would you be interested in making money while providing a personal protection device to the general public?"

Today, everyone is touched, one way or another, by crime. They have either been faced with crime or know someone who has. The larger percentages of these crimes are committed against women, children and our senior citizens. It is time to fight back. Taser C2 Party will allow everyone to do this. By attending or holding a Taser C2 Party, the general public will be receiving the safety knowledge they deserve and will have exposure to the products that can ultimately save their life and the ones they love.

Markansas Enterprises continues to build a growing company and is proudly and steadily building safety relationships with satisfied customers all over the United States through their websites. Taser C2 Party was launched March 2008. It is this website that will create the opportunity for individuals to start their own company while serving the public and providing a safety product to protect themselves and their loved ones.

The Taser C2 Party website includes one product line only. It is the Taser C2 and accessories. Taser C2 Party will provide a business opportunity for party consultants nationwide.

You are sure to find the perfect Taser C2 to protect your home and family. Have a look around. Become a Taser C2 Party Consultant today. Make a positive change in your life while making others safe.

Taser C2 Party is a family friendly, self defense website and is proud to serve our public.
