Press Release Body: After a year in the making, Foreign Translations, Inc., has launched its new website. The address is still the same (www.foreigntranslations.com) but everything else has changed. According to CEO, Ken Zwerdling, "The new website is more interactive. It gives you a better understanding of our services and access to free tools that can help companies go global including currency conversion, weights and measures, length and distance, temperature conversion, a global time zone chart and a free translation tool." The graphics for all the languages and industries were carefully selected in order to give the visitor the feeling of actually being in that particular country. In addition Foreign Translations (www.foreigntranslations.com) has added a strategic partners sections, free whitepapers, client testimonials, expanded views of clients, years of company news and a generous referral program. Foreign Translations helps companies "Go Global with Confidence."®
