Press Release Summary: For 5 years www.servicewrap.net has provided 1st page ranking solutions for business the world over. Now X, the way to achieve search engine rankings, 1st page, in just 3 days is nearly upon us.

Press Release Body: Arriving Summer 2008 is X, the fastest route to achieving top 10 and top 3 rankings in the search engines of Yahoo, Altavista, AllTheWeb, Excite and many more 1st tier search engines. X is the result of 6 months in-house search engine inclusion and optimization testing at Servicewrap.Net and comes on the back of over 5 years of providing top ranking solutions to the global business community. X is defined as the fastest possible way to achieve natural 1st page search engine listings.

X will be released as a package in its own right on the Servicewrap website Summer 2008 and features a unique blend of guaranteed paid inclusion using the search engines own listing schemes, rapid 12 hour optimization of a website, up to 35 pages optimized for up to 10 keywords per page and focused on different elements - all for the lowest priced comparison available from any top 10 ranking provider.

Watch for X on www.servicewrap.net, and experience a new breed of optimization, guaranteed listing and submission service, blended into one wholly unique package. X is the acculmuration of battery testing and comes with a 96% success rate on mid-range 1st page rankings in the natural results of the search engines in just 72 hours from activation.

With expressed code analysis and optimization, implementation, paid natural search inclusion through one of the largest search portals online results in mid-range top placements that truly drive new traffic, and that can be achieved in less than 3 days.

Further ongoing work to more competitive keywords, which includes the establishment of a sustained link building campaign, highly targeted with ongoing optimization, can lead to more competitive achievements.

X from Servicewrap.Net is a best of breed, budget, fast-track 3 day 1st page ranking service within some of the largest search engines on the internet.
