Press Release Summary: New foreign exchange website goes live from Corporate FX.

Press Release Body: CorporateFX Ltd, the UK's leading provider of commercial foreign currency services has launched a brand new customer-focused, website. The site, www.corporatefx.co.uk, is designed in direct response to CorporateFX's research into what the customer really wants.

CorporateFX's Chief Executive Stewart Blake says: "At CorporateFX we have always taken customer care very seriously, talking and listening to our customers and taking their views on board. Over the last year we have conducted a series of informal research programmes and the results have influenced the new website design and content."

The new website gives customers detailed information, a media area containing all appearances on global TV news channels, a redeveloped Currency Dealer chat system and the ability to directly open a trading facility via an online ID verification process.

"Our customers want to be able to find what they are looking for quickly and easily and find out who we are and how we work," says

Stewart Blake. "We are a successful, growing and strongly reliable company. We are continually innovating and improving our products and services. The new website is the natural next step."

The company has experienced phenomenal growth since its foundation in 2001, along with the 60% increase year on year in trading activity with their online foreign currency payment solution – SmartFX, CorporateFX are now the leading provider of commercial foreign currency exchange services in the UK.

Stewart Blake added: "We are in a competitive market. Our clients rightly expect a good deal and a professional service. At CorporateFX Ltd we know that our products are not only the very best available but also that we listen to our customers. As a result, we will continue to refine our products and services to meet their needs now and in the future."
