Press Release Body: Beautiful Words, LLC

Debut of stage play, After the Storm, an inspirational stage play on August 26, 2008 at 7:30PM at the Clarkston Community Center.

After the storm....Hurricane Katrina forces an Atlanta business woman to provide shelter for her New Orleans family members, whom she distanced herself for several years....

The excitement and anticipation is building as the premier date for the stage-play After the Storm nears. This inspirational stage play written by Tenille Wilson and Mark A.R. Williams is creating such a buzz that discussions of a second showing are already underway. The cast of the show are so pleased to be apart of such quality entertainment.

The performance of the play has been strategically planned to take place around the anniversary of Hurricane Katrina as a way to memorialize the deceased and to honor the survivors who are still struggling to put the pieces of their lives back together. When such a tragic, life changing event occurs the effects of it can be felt by millions of people for a number of years. What takes place after the storm?.....

The stage-play stars Kanya Maree, Charles Black, Tenille Wilson, and Benjie Anderson will be performed on August 26, 2008 at 7:30 PM at the Clarkston Community Center which is located at 3701 College Ave Clarkston, GA 30021.
