Press Release Summary: Select Property and Select Group Limited announce Swanky A-list party to launch their new Aquitainia Dubai development

Press Release Body: Whilst most people are facing a long miserable winter with a nose-diving economy, it appears that the cream of London's A-listers are setting their sights to sunnier (and more profitable) climes as they flock to the biggest and most prestigious party of the year in London.

Same planet different world

On the 25th September, Select Property and Select Group Limited will be celebrating the launch of their latest development in Dubai, named 'Aquitainia' which will be hosted by the 'million dollar baby' herself, Hilary Swank.

Two-time Oscar winner Swank, who is renowned for her astute business brain and love of Dubai, will play host at boutique hotel 'The Hempel' in Notting Hill showcasing the deluxe beachfront properties that epitomise glamour and style and are attracting fellow A-listers in droves.

This is the first time since 2006 that Miss Swank will be back in London Town, and she brings with her Grammy Award winner Kelly Rowland. Miss Rowland, a regular visitor and huge star in Dubai, will be setting the live soundtrack to the evening, whilst the guests rub shoulders and mingle with their potential new neighbours and many other guests - to be announced nearer the time.

Everyone who is anyone is expected to want a piece of this million dollar action and with names in Aquitainia like 'Cannes Beach Villas', 'Monaco Villas' and 'St Tropez Marina' these new properties are a world away from the doom and gloom of the UK's headlines.

Miss Swank will provide a press statement before entering the venue in a prior approved area outside the venue.
