Press Release Body: Calgary, AB- The emerging company, Acquire Benfits Group, www.acquirebenefitsgroups.com, offers economic solution through exclusive discounts on medical, pharmaceutical, gas, grocery, retail and entertainment purchases in major companies while offering members profits from others' purchases as well.

ABG offers discounts on over 300,000 different major companies including Chevron, Kroger, Dell, Target and Walmart. The company went into soft launch on Oct. 12, 2008 in which thousands of people have already signed up free. The full prelaunch is Oct. 25, 2008.

"As a work at home mother of two, it made perfect sense to me to sign up for a business with a company where I can get discounts on the majority of my purchases especially in this strained economy. I also have the satisfaction of being able to help other people by offering the same deal!" said ABG team member, Kelly Smith

Members of Acquire Benefits Group www.acquirebenefitsgroups.com also have the option to earn money from other team member purchases, offering members a business opportunity as well.

How does it work? It will work for people in a variety of ways from a discount card to coupons that can be printed out on the computer. And some of the company products can be ordered through the Internet where the member will be offered free shipping.

"This kind of business could be just one response to the economic problems people are seeing in North America right now. People are realizing they need to economize more than ever and most North Americans are looking to other sources of income and let's face it, the Internet is offering the average Joe more opportunities than hitting the pavement and knocking on doors," said ABG member, Brad Smith.
