Press Release Summary: October, 2008 Joppa, MD—Identity Checks launched three new product suites in October to be promoted in its recently created, destinations category. The new check designs, "Italian Vistas," "Deutschland," and "Lindo Puerto Rico," each have personal checks, self-adhesive address labels, personal contact cards, and a checkbook cover to match.

Press Release Body: Identity Checks offers an eclectic mixture of personal check designs and banking accessories. Many of the products promoted by Identity Checks support different hobbies, occupations, sports, and universities. To expand on this assortment, Identity Checks has released three new check designs, into its destinations category.

In October, 2008, Identity Checks released several new designs through its website, www.identitychecks.com. In the destinations category of the site, three new check designs have been launched. "Italian Vistas," "Lindo Puerto Rico," and "Deutschland" enable consumers to travel the country sides of Italy and Germany with only the help of their checkbooks. The "Italian Vistas" design features photographs of classic cities in Italy on the personal checks and labels, while the contact cards and checkbook cover feature the colors of the flag and the word "Italia" The "Deutschland" design is very similar to "Italian Vistas" in that it also portrays famous cities in Germany on the checks and labels, with the country's colors on the contact cards and checkbook cover. "Lindo Puerto Rico" is slightly different in that both the checks and accessories display the same classic Puerto Rican design in the background along with the country's flag.
