

Become A Virtual Assistant launches new Membership Site for the Virtual Assistant and SME Market

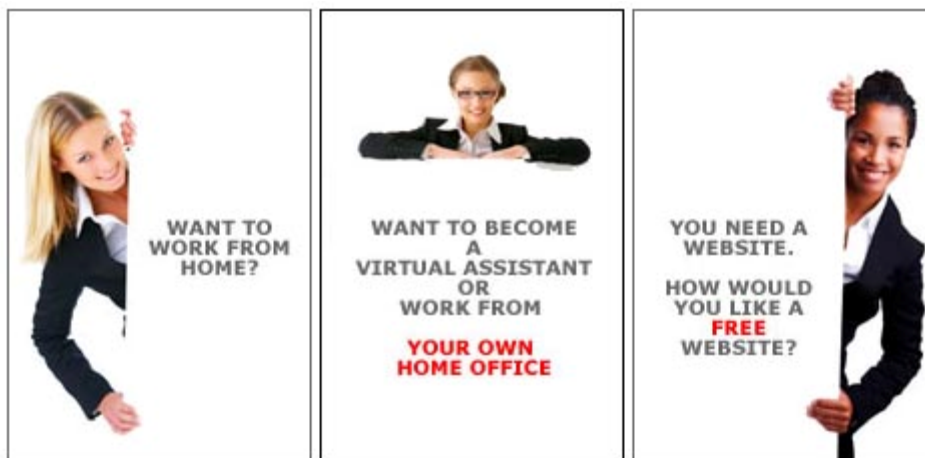

Wannabe A VA

Released on: November 19, 2008, 6:07 am

Press Release Author: Di Chapman

Industry: Small Business

Press Release Summary: AYNAC, LOT -18/11/08 - A new website was launched this week to help the Virtual Assistant and SME market realize the benefits of owning a bespoke website for minimal cost. It was launched by Di Chapman of Icenit-it, the largest UK VA website with over 4000 members.

Press Release Body: <http://www.wannabe-a-va.com> offers free hand built websites and domain names with its hosting and marketing package. Di Chapman of Icenit-it has partnered with Caroline Wiberg of Alternative Office to provide this service.

Visitors can visit <http://www.wannabe-a-va.com> to receive the firm's free information which features downloads of marketing books by such writers as Napoleon Hill. Full members have a library of downloads.

The website also describes the company's full 'Small Business' package and introduces the firm's partners who have collectively more than 16 years of experience providing help and support to Small Businesses especially people who want to become Virtual Assistants. Di Chapman has won awards for this work in the UK and for her continued Pro Bono work in the VA/SME sector.

For more information, go to <http://www.wannabe-a-va.com>. Questions can be directed to <http://www.wannabehelpdesk.info/support/>

About Icenit-it (<http://www.iceni-it.co.uk>)
Founded in 2000 by Di Chapman, Icenit-it helps those who want to become Virtual Assistants on a totally free basis. The Awards that Di Chapman received were not from within the VA industry but from the UK Business Community for her ongoing work in helping others start their own businesses at no cost to them. Di Chapman can be contacted at va@iceni-it.co.uk.

Web Site: <http://www.wannabe-a-va.com>

Contact Details: Contact: Di Chapman

Aubiac, 46120 AYNAC France.

Telephone: +33565106853

Email: va@iceni-it.co.uk

Helpdesk: <http://www.wannabehelpdesk.info/support/>