

Real Estate worth 1.5M up for Grabs in New Super Raffle

Released on: November 13, 2008, 9:34 am

Press Release Author: San Blas Self Catering

Industry: Real Estate

Press Release Summary: Prime Spanish real estate consisting of an entire holiday complex will be given away in this raffle of the year! With the property market in it's current state, this has to be the answer to getting on the property ladder, and what a property to do it with!

Press Release Body: The media has covered a number of raffles over the past few months in which a house or property is given away to one lucky winning ticket holder. None of these can compete however with the latest property draw 'San Blas' (www.sanblasforsale.com) unveiled this week. The raffle will see San Blas, a magnificently fully restored old Spanish Cortijo set in the beautiful Andalucían countryside, and worth around a cool 1.5 Million be handed over to the prize winner holding the lucky ticket costing a mere 25 Euros. More unusual about this raffle is the fact that the lucky ticket holder will not only win a stunning 4 bedroom house but a complete self catering holiday complex too. The San Blas raffle is truly unrivalled by any other property draw and offers the winner a truly life changing prize.

It has been quite an emotional journey for English owners Wayne and Dave who have spent the past three years lovingly restoring the property to a quite remarkable standard. For family reasons however they have been forced to make the difficult decision to say goodbye to the home and business of their dreams and return to the UK. The recent credit crunch and property crisis have led the pair to do some lateral thinking and they have come up with an alternative and novel way of selling this outstanding property. To the fortunate winner Wayne and Dave leave behind all the fruits of their hard work: a beautifully restored house, along with seven classic white-washed self catering cottages and apartments, a swimming pool, and 15 acres of breathtaking countryside. Further information and pictures of the entire property can be viewed at www.sanblasforsale.com. There is also an additional online booking website for the self-catering business.

The raffle has been carefully drawn up with full legal advice and meets all legal requirements. Each ticket will cost 25 Euros and can be purchased easily online at the www.sanblasforsale.com website, and those purchasing 4 tickets will receive an additional ticket free. Those participating in the raffle can view online the number of tickets sold which is updated daily. Every ticket holder will be kept updated on the draw and informed within 48 hours of all tickets being sold. The grand draw itself will be overseen by a number of independent Spanish solicitors and this will also be filmed. The video of the draw will be made available for everyone to watch on the www.sanblasforsale.com website within 24 hours of the draw taking place.

Looking for Spanish real estate? Look no more because the lucky winner will receive the freehold and full & clear title deeds to the fabulous Cortijo San Blas which will include the 4 bedroom main house along with 7 self catering units comprising 12 bedrooms, 9 kitchens, 12 showers, 13 toilets, plus 15 acres and a great swimming pool – pretty spectacular for just a 25 Euro stake. The winner will also be handed over the deposits and all future bookings at the popular San Blas holiday property. With the self catering units being rented from 190 to 365 Euros per week each, this will provide the winner with a profitable start to their new life and business in the Spanish sunshine.

Also unique to this property raffle is the fact that tickets will retain their full face value as they can be exchanged at any time before the draw for accommodation at the complex. Indeed Wayne and Dave are keen to encourage as many people as possible to view the property whether passing through the area or staying to see for themselves what a fantastic home and ready-made holiday business awaits the lucky winner.

To purchase tickets or to find out more about the most exciting property raffle ever launched and the chance to enjoy a fantastic new life in the Spanish sun visit www.sanblasforsale.com - and remember, somebody has to win and it could very well be you!

Web Site: <http://www.sanblasforsale.com>

Contact Details: Media Contact: Wayne
Cortijo San Blas
Lizaran
Velez Rubio
Almeria
Andalucia
04820