The huge home at Thistlecroft is believed to be one of the most prestigious properties recently constructed within the South East of England. It occupies an idyllic site of approximately 4 acres and has an established plot with many fine mature trees and with landscaped open lawns and a pond. These gardens border onto farmland which in turn border woodland providing a peaceful and secluded setting. The property is accessed via a private lane affording access to only a few properties.

Nicholas Marr "Selling a luxury home is not like any other home and a break from tradition is needed to get huge exposure to find overseas buyers. We posted the home on YouTube and have the house being found by international buyers using relevant search terms on the internet, this has resulted in potential buyers from all over the world viewing the home"

The home has attracted potential buyers from Russia, Canada and the US and is now one of the most viewed properties at Homesgofast.com who list 180,000 international homes.
