Press Release Summary: 32Red remain the best in online casino entertainment, with a 6th successive Best Casino Award from the independent watchdog and casino player advocate, Casinomeister

Press Release Body: 32Red Plc has announced that 32Red, their UK facing online casino, has retained the Casinomeister Best Casino (Global) Award for the sixth year running. This unprecedented achievement is on the back of the company's positive trading figures for 2008 and underlines a solid year for the AIM listed company.

32Red CEO, Ed Ware, remarked, "We're absolutely delighted to have retained the Best Casino Award in 2008 and will continue to provide and build on our unrivalled service and product in 2009. 32Red has always put the player first and this award is further evidence of that."

Bryan Bailey of Casinomeister praised 32Red's consistency by commenting that the online casino has, "marked the standard most casinos wish to replicate since their launching in 2002." He noted in particular that 32Red "has maintained a strong and steady course providing players and their affiliates with a safe and secure gaming environment, fairness and transparency."

In addition to a sixth successive Best Casino award, 32Red Online Casino is celebrating another coveted accolade with consecutive Best Casino Manager awards for 32Red's Operations Director, Pat Harrison. Bailey recognised Harrison's hard work in 2008, remarking "He is readily available, approachable, and is capable of making smart command decisions. He is the "face" of 32Red - a casino that consistently exceeds our expectations."

The awards reinforce a good year for 32Red Plc, who recently announced gross wins up by 13%, 15% more active players and new players up by 7% in 2008. The casino is well known within the industry for its wide range of online slots, casino games and poker rooms, and the brand launched their first national TV campaign in December. Ware anticipates more of the same for 2009, highlighting the online casino's debut UK television campaign which commenced in December.
