Press Release Summary: Kenn Renner and Sport Court of Austin are featured on an up coming episode of HGTV's number #1 rated television show "House Hunters". To commemorate the airing of the HGTV special as well as the 30th anniversary of Sport Court of Austin, they are jointly hosting a free reception at the new Steiner Ranch Steak House on the day of the showing -- Monday February 16th, 2009 at 6:30 PM. The event is open to the public, but you must RSVP by the 16th of the month in order to attend this special event.

Press Release Body: Austin, Texas -- February 9th, 2009 -- On Monday, February 16th at 6:30 Central Time (7:30 Pacific/Eastern) HGTV's # 1 rated show "House Hunters" will air featuring Lake Travis estate homes. One of the homes on the show will feature a sport court built by Sport Court of Austin. On the show, real estate expert Kenn Renner (www.buyaustin.com) will tour three luxury lakeside estates – all just twenty minutes from downtown Austin, Texas. "All of the homes were absolutely stunning but the home with the sport court was truly unique – when we saw the court with a lake view it really was a show stopper. With home buyers a sport court shouts - healthy family get-togethers!" Kenn, a twenty-five year veteran of real estate and national speaker has been encouraging his custom home building clients to consider building a sport court to enhance the value and appeal of their luxury home. He explains, "a sport court and a putting green can be installed for much less than an in-ground pool and can certainly influence a buyer's home choice. The luxury market is a buyer's market right now and a sport court can make the difference in final home selection."

Kenn recently met with the owner of Sport Court of Austin, Greg Dettman, who has been building courts in the Austin area since 1978. He has built over 1000 courts in and around Austin. He agrees that these days, his clients are looking to enhance the family value of a home. He sees sport court buyers making an investment in their homes "and" their children through the quality time they will spend playing basketball, volleyball, tennis etc. "A backyard court gives kids a place to hang out at home and stay active and away from the video games," Dettman says. Sport Court of Austin has installed courts and greens for celebrities , sports stars and coaches, as well as many "not so famous people like you and me – however we are famous in our kid's eyes and that's what's really important," Dettman further adds. A popular Youtube video featuring one of his sport courts and the star of the House Hunters show can be found at <http://www.JustinRenner.com>.

To celebrate the 30th anniversary of Sport Court of Austin and the honor of being featured on National Television's "House Hunters" Greg and Kenn are having a reception at the new Steiner Steak House (www.SteinerSteakhouse.com) the day of the show – Monday, February 16th. The reception will begin at 6 P.M. and will be held on the third level of the steak house with a spectacular view of Lake Travis. The "House Hunter's" show airs at 6:30 P.M. For an invite to the reception and to RSVP for the event contact Kenn Renner @ 512-423-5626 (call/text) or via email at kenn@buyaustin.com
