Through its Masterpiece Collection, Artistic Checks has been able to showcase the artwork of many well-known artists on checks and other banking accessories. Artistic Checks continues to expand its assortment of Masterpiece personal checks with the addition of Jim Shore's seasonal angels.

Artistic Checks is thrilled to have the work of such a talented artist on its personal banking products. Jim Shore is known worldwide for his stone resin figurine works of art resembling hand-carved wood, folk art paintings and country décor home accessories. This award-winning artist has loved creating artwork since as far back as he can remember and it truly shines through in his work. Artistic Checks is proud to be offering his artwork in another format for his collectors to enjoy.

In February, 2009, Artistic Checks launched its new product suite, "Jim Shore's Angels," through its Masterpiece Collection on www.artisticchecks.com. The personal checks and address labels feature four rotating designs of angels, which represent the four seasons, against landscapes of peaceful, country towns. The paintings are infused with folk-art colors and patterns that give them a very country décor look. The product suite also offers a personal contact card and printed canvas checkbook cover also featuring Jim Shore's angel artwork.

For over a decade, Artistic Checks has offered the artwork of many well-known artists and painters. The masterpieces of Jim Shore are sure to expand the collection in a new and exciting way as Artistic Checks continues to grow. Visit the site today to view all the outstanding designs available on personal checks and other checking accessories.
