

Resume service announces 'recession fighting' special offer for job seekers

Released on: February 02, 2009, 11:12 am

Press Release Author: Tim Solinger

Industry: Consumer-Services

Press Release Summary: Great Impressions Resume Service, LLC, of Stevens Point, Wis., announces a "recession fighting" special offer to help job seekers improve their resumes and cover letters.

Press Release Body: Stevens Point, Wisconsin - (January 31, 2009) - Great Impressions Resume Service, LLC, is offering a "30-$30" Recession Fighter Resume Special to help job seekers strengthen their resumes and cover letters and stretch their dollars further.

According to Tim Solinger, owner and operator of Great Impressions Resume Service, clients will receive 30 minutes of consulting assistance for a flat fee of $30.00. Solinger will provide detailed, personalized feedback to help individuals update and improve their resumes and cover letters.

"In today's economy, people are looking for solutions that are economical and that offer value. This service is designed to help those who already have a cover letter and resume and who are looking for individualized, professional feedback so they can better compete for job opportunities," Solinger says.

Solinger holds the Certified Professional Resume Writer credential, and he is a member of the Professional Association of Resume Writers & Career Coaches and the Career Masters Institute.

Great Impressions Resume Service provides consultations by appointment during weekday business hours as well as during evenings and weekends. For more information, visit www.greatimpressionsresume.com or call (715) 570-2749.

Web Site: <http://www.greatimpressionsresume.com>

Contact Details: Tim Solinger
Owner/Consultant
Great Impressions Resume Service, LLC
2825 Simonis Street
Stevens Point, WI 54481
(715) 570-2749
info@timsolinger.com
www.greatimpressionsresume.com