A personalized Easter Bunny coloring page for your child for free! Handcrafted... straight from Cottontail Lane by the Easter Bunny himself!

The sky is blue and flowers are blooming everywhere. Tiny green buds are visible on tree branches and birds are singing beautiful songs. Spring is in the air and Easter is around the corner. Down on Cottontail Lane, the Easter Bunny is preparing for the big day. This Easter, he wanted to do something extra special for all the children of the world. Easter was getting closer and he still had only mediocre ideas. The same old traditional gifts were just not going to cut it. A few months ago, the Easter Bunny created the Easter Bunny letter, a personalized letter from the Easter Bunny to each child. Confirmed by his survey, parents all agreed that children loved opening a "real" letter from the Easter Bunny. The purpose was not to top this idea but to send an extra special gift in addition to the personalized Easter Bunny Letter.

The Easter Bunny quickly realized it was time to get to work. He began thumping his big white rabbit foot and scratching between his long white ears. The Easter Bunny knew he needed to gather information from parents in order to create such a wonderful surprise for the children. He conducted a survey, which revealed that children enjoyed a very simple pleasure...they loved to color. Now the Easter Bunny was very excited! He finally he had reliable information to create the perfect gift. He immediately started to construct coloring pages for all the children. The Easter Bunny drew many different pictures of himself participating in exciting Easter activities. He then personalized each page for a particular child. The child's name and a very personal message we inserted into the drawing he created. Each page is left uncolored so that the children could color it and make it their very own.

We all have seen the impact on our children when they receive a simple letter from the Easter Bunny or Santa Claus. They are thrilled to see they received something special in the mail just for them. It makes them feel like at that moment they are at the center of the universe. A surprise special package in the mail addressed to your child! Anticipation rushes through them like a lightning bolt when they realize the Easter Bunny wrote them a special message just for them. It will make them jump out of their seat with excitement.
