20 April 2010 – With tourists and travellers having continuing problems with the Icelandic volcanic ash delaying and cancelling flights, award-winning car hire price comparator Carrentals.co.uk is advising tourists to enquire about cancellations and pick up delays.

Gareth Robinson, Managing Director of Carrentals.co.uk, said: "With no firm news forthcoming about when the ash problems will cease people are still having lots of problems with getting to destinations and picking up rental cars."

"We have heard of many people getting stuck and being unable to pick up rental cars to get to holiday resorts, so we counsel contacting hire companies to find out about cancellations and delayed pick up policies."

Iceland's volcano situation does not look like letting up just yet so tourists and holidaymakers continue to experience problems when travelling.

Dinesh Kanji, Business Development Manager of Auto Europe UK, said: "We have received many calls about the situation in Iceland and as such we are helping people with free cancellations on reservations which have been affected by the volcanic ash. We're also offering reduced rates on extended hires for people stuck abroad and they should call free on 0800 358 1229 to find out more."

Carrentals.co.uk compares cheap car hire deals from up to 50 rental companies, including Alamo, Auto Europe, Budget, easyCar, Holiday Autos and Sixt, in over 9,000 locations worldwide.
