SnakeLoops a new training

aid application for Mac OS X 10.4 and up.

SnakeLoops acts as а combination of video speed reducer, pitchshifter and looper. studying musician can use it to slow down and loop difficult parts in video and audio files. That way he or she uses practicing time more efficiently and gain skills faster.

Whatever you practice - guitar, dancing or golf swings, you'll learn much quicker if you take it slow at first and really try to feel it. This application is meant for anybody who wants to start making fast progress in the quest for mastering the favorite skill. Try the app and see for yourself just how much it can make your practicing enjoyable! You will also be better motivated to practice when you see fast progress.

Features:

- · Easily drag loops over the waveform.
- Select any number of loops for sequenced exercises.
- Give each loop a name for instance "Exercise 7".
- Sidebar lets you switch between any song and any loop.
- Loops any video or audio file that QuickTime Player supports.
- Change playback rate from 20% to 120% without changing the pitch of the sound.

- Pitch shifter lets you change tone in between -5 to +5 semitones.
- The slowed down sound quality is really amazing. Should try!
- Undo / redo support.
- Saves all loops for all the content inside a database.
- Drag and drop from Finder or iTunes.
- Designed for Mac.
