Volusia Manufacturers Association (VMA) is the only manufacturing trade association established by manufacturers uniting Volusia and Flagler County Manufacturers and Associates. The Volusia Manufacturers Association was founded in 1980 in Daytona Beach, Florida and currently has over 180 Manufacturing and Associate members in the Daytona Beach area.

Don Bell Signs, a national sign fabricator located in Port Orange, Florida, and a long-standing Volusia Manufacturers Association Manufacturing Member, recently won Second Place in the 2010 International Sign Contest's Sign Systems category for the best exterior signage. Signs of the Times magazine has been a leading source of far-reaching sign-industry news and technical information since 1906. Its online version, SignWeb serves to educate and inspire signage and graphics professionals worldwide through editorials, technology updates, new product reviews, cutting-edge graphics techniques, and more. Its Annual International Sign Contest has such categories as best unique signs, best electronic message centers, best electric building signs, best commercial building signs, best electric freestanding signs, best commercial freestanding signs, best murals/banners/supergraphics, best electric monument signs, best commercial monument signs, best sign systems, and best exhibit graphics.

The award-winning sign was built for client, AMC Theaters, located in Kansas City, Missouri, with the design by Selbert Perkins Design. Don Bell Signs manufactured and installed a 68' x 6' marquee that features an EVIDA 10mm LED motion-graphics board that curves to fit the façade. They also manufactured and installed a 60' x 11' blade sign featuring channel letters illuminated with GE Lumination's red Tetra LED strips and faced with red acrylic.
