Today, Preston based personal injury firm, PHC Law Ltd, celebrate their 10th anniversary.

From humble beginnings starting off as a one man band, the firm has grown to become one of the most reputable personal injury solicitors in Preston, and surrounding areas with a total staff number of 15 and counting.

Philip H Cuerden, Managing Director explains "I wanted to develop a specialist firm that was able to respond to our clients efficiently to the personal injury environment. Although the myth of "compensation culture" continues to be reported by the media that it is easy for any one to pursue and successfully make a claim for compensation that is not the case.

Many of the laws that govern the service that we provide have been around for decades, since the law of negligence was established in 1931.

The firm has seen a significant change in legislation in recent years, aimed at safeguarding the workforce.

People awareness of the right to bring a claim if they are a victim of an accident due to someone else's negligence has changed. However, establishing that fault remains the challenge and is what our team of solicitors is dedicated to"

"Although we have a English and Polish client base, our future aim is to raise our profile both locally and Nationally to make sure that we are the first port of call for those unlucky enough to suffer an injury as a result of an accident.

To achieve this we have recently invested in the re-launch of our new website, www.phclaw.com and also partnered with one of the UK's leading SEO agencies who we are working very closely with to make sure that we are featured on page one of Google when ever someone browses online for a 'No win, No Fee' solicitor.

We want to be the firm that people feel comfortable approaching and made to feel at ease and assured that at all times, we have their best interests at heart, and will do our utmost to ensure they receive the medical treatment and compensation they deserve".
