The Sports Genius Trivia App provides over 25,000 sports trivia questions, and is designed and built for the sports trivia enthusiast, those who know their trivia and love to show it. Trivia is now available at their fingertips, play a quick game in 3 minutes, track your performance stats and even get help from friends on Facebook or Twitter.

At the heart of the app is a core philosophy, give sports fans a challenge, have them debate, puzzle-over and spark conversations. Sports Genius aims to challenge with tough questions, rewards fans with the rush of being at the top of their game. The easy to use Sports Genius also builds the love of trivia with the notice, by giving casual users a great experience to increase their knowledge and have some fun. The rookie and pro, can use hints to help their game while the all-star can show how well they know their stuff without assistance. Each game can be played at different levels so you can challenge yourself appropriately from sport to sport or region to region.

"We are very excited to offer sport fans a premium trivia experience for the upcoming NFL, NHL and NBA season. The secret behind a good trivia game is the questions, and this is where we have focused. Our sports fans will love a good challenge. Learn more about my inspiration for the game at www.sports-genius.com/blog, where tough questions from my grandfather turned into a love of trivia", says, Mike Shara, Sports Genius and Founder.

Key features of the game that users will fall in love with:

- Play over 25,000 questions
- Play by region or sport
- Play by different levels – rookie, professional, all-star
- Earn points at different levels, including double plays and three pointers
- Get hints while playing
- Get help with question via Facebook or Twitter
- Track your performance, and earn a spot on the leaderboard
