October 03, 2012, 11:21 am -- /EPR NETWORK/ -- Blaxland FC, based in Sydney's football heartland (Nepean Region), have partnered with football apparel supplier Team Spirit for the 2013 season.

After a lengthy pitch process, Blaxland FC decided that Team Spirit had the best offering to cater for them in 2013.

"We have used multiple suppliers over the last few years and found that Team Spirit's professionalism is head and shoulders above their competitors. We are excited to be partnering with Team Spirit and are looking forward seeing our club running around in their football kit next season," stated Blaxland FC President Keith Hand.

Blaxland FC gear steward Brad Blunt praised the quality of the gear stating that "the quality of Team Spirit's soccer uniforms is extremely high. You can tell the difference in the production quality instantly".

This partnership is the first of many that Team Spirit is set to make for the 2013 season.
