May 21, 2013, 4:48 am -- /EPR NETWORK/ -- Having found a new Shoreditch-based rooftop, The Forza Win team are back for another run. Launched last summer, the rooftop pizza restaurant was a sell-out success with its three-course meal, drinks and live entertainment formula. For anyone hoping to find a hotel in the Shoreditch area, a number of cheap London hotels can be found on LondonTown.com.

The pop up restaurant launched in London with a summer pizza-based event and, due to its overwhelming popularity, created a winter version too, which provided guests with a hearty cheese fondue and warming cocktails. Now, they're back for a third time and have partnered up with Pizza Pilgrims, the street food company that has taken London by storm.

Upon arrival, to an east London location that is kept a secret until booking, guests are greeted with a welcome drink and seated on large communal tables - tickets are limited to a small number each night, making this an intimate and friendly evening. They are then treated to a tempting Italian starter, a Neapolitan pizza tasting menu, cooked on woodfired ovens by the Pizza Pilgrims, and plenty of wine. The evening concludes with an indulgent dessert and live entertainment, this year a host of new bands and performers will provide the entertainment. They've also launched an 'after' venue this time round, so guests can party post Forza until the early hours of the morning.

The restaurant will run from 30 th May to the end of September and is currently taking bookings. For the three-course meal, drink on arrival and live entertainment, guests are charged £30.
