As experienced bingo players know, there are many different versions of Bingo. Players often take the time to practice and try out each and every bingo game before they decide on their favorite, and it's much better fun to experience some new versions rather than be conservative and stick to one game! Here's some information and tips that might help you speed up the process and help you choose the bingo game that's perfect for you.

Traditional Games

So if you like simple, basic bingo and want to stick to the classic and well-known games, then traditional bingo games are the choice for you. Traditional bingo games have simple patterns such as vertical lines, horizontal lines, diagonal lines, winners circle and four corners. These types of games keep it really simple, which is absolutely perfect for beginners.

Something New and Exciting

Do you want a new twist on the traditional game? If so, you should check out pattern bingo. Now pattern bingo has many of the features of traditional bingo games, but with one unique exception. Rather than making a basic five-in-a-row bingo win, players are required to complete complex patterns, such as "Hangman", "A" or "Starburst". These games can present a fun challenge for players who are looking for something new, and give experienced bingo players renewed interest in their game!

A Twist on a Favorite

Finally, if you're looking for something entirely new when it comes to playing bingo, you might want to check out Deal or No Deal bingo. If you're a fan of the television show, you will great fun playing in this unique, and very different online bingo game. Just like the famous television show, you will be assigned a box with a mystery prize. Throughout the game, you will receive calls from the mysterious banker who will make offers to buy the box from you. It's up to you to decide whether to take the banker's offer or to stick with your original choice containing the secret jackpot prize. The excitement builds as the boxes available to choose from begin to get smaller... and especially so if it starts to look like your first choice might contain the big jackpot!
