The UK's biggest sports and music event

November 27, 2013, 9:27 am -- /EPR NETWORK/ -- Clapham Common hosts London's biggest Alpine party at the end of the month – five days of snow, ice and international headline acts. Visitors looking for warm, cosy cheap London hotels to retire to afterwards can book a room through LondonTown.com.

The sixth Freeze Festival takes place from 27 November to 1 December 2013. 500 tonnes of real snow and a 32-metre high/100-metre long kicker will allow a showcase of world-class skiing and snowboarding including the £12,000 prize Hail the Rail competition.

Among the DJs and live bands performing over the festival will be international headline acts including Madeon, DJ Fresh, Messy MC, Alunageorge, Idris Elba, MJ Cole, Clean Bandit, The Cuban Brothers and Maribou State.

And let's not forget the après ski: Alpine-themed bars and streetfood vendors will be serving up traditional fare such as bratwurst, crêpes, fondue, tartiflette and roasted chestnuts plus hot mulled wine and cider. There'll also be films, talks, a shopping village stocked with top snowsport brands and an adrenalin-pumping winter funfair.

Freeze Festival 2013 is on Clapham Common, London SW4 from 27 November to 1 December, and is open from 12noon to 10.30pm. For full details visit the Freeze website, freezefestival.com or follow on twitter @londonfreeze. A Saturday pass costs £32-£50 and a season pass (5 days) £54-£70. Children under 10 go free in conjunction with adult ticket
