Back in the spotlight after a seven-year break

LONDON, March 20, 2014 -- /EPR NETWORK/ -- It's been seven years since Justin Timberlake was last in London, and this year he returns to the capital with his 20/20 Experience World Tour. The tour, which takes in Sheffield, Glasgow, Birmingham and Manchester in the UK, will hit The O2 Arena in April, with a return gig in the summer planned for June too.

Off the back of last year's 20/20 Experience album which, with sales of over 3.5 million to date, was the biggest selling album of 2013, Justin's World Tour takes place at The O2 on 1 st and 2 nd April, as well as 10 th June, with tickets selling fast.

This show will be the first time Justin Timberlake has performed his own show at The O2 since his FutureSex/LoveShow tour in July 2007. Earlier this year he performed his new material during the Brit Awards, and fans can expect to see a host of new material from his 20/20 Experience and The 20/20 Experience 2 of 2 albums, as well as a selection of his hottest hits.

The O2 Arena is the centrepiece of the redeveloped Millennium Dome, and is the first purpose-built music venue in the capital. Up to 23,000 fans can squeeze in to gigs at the arena, with Timberlake being the latest in a long line of big name acts to call the O2 home. From Britney to the Rolling Stones, AC/DC to Fleetwood Mac, it's London premiere music venue when it comes to the biggest bands and performers on the planet.

To coincide with Justin's return to the O2, LondonTown.com has teamed up with a selection of London hotels, all within the O2 Arena area, to offer special discounts to fans looking for accommodation in the city.

The Radisson Blu Edwardian New Providence Wharf, just 9 minutes from the venue, and 14 minutes from City Airport, is offering a 28% discount, with double rooms available from just £66 per night. The nearby popular budget chain hotel Ibis London Docklands is giving an even bigger 38% discount to fans, who can enjoy double rooms by the Thames from just £49 per night.
