

The Montcalm London Marble Arch offers perfect escape for romantic couples

Released on: April 04, 2014, 5:10 am (EDT)

Author: Montcalm London Marble Arch

Industry: Travel

LONDON, April 04, 2014 -- /EPR NETWORK/ -- London has been the home of short and romantic getaways for over centuries now. The all the year round events, fashion shows, and exhibitions keep the spice of the city alive. The recently hosted Oscars nominee show was a mega hit and drew movie fans from all over the world. The cinema and the theatre has been the backbone of the entertainment industry here. One cannot get over the city in one go as there is so much to explore. From history to fashion the latest of all happenings are here in London.

It is the perfect time to visit London where spring has kept temperatures mild and tourists can explore the city easily. There have been a huge flock of celebrities and tourists coming here due to the Oscars that recently took place. All of this makes for a great trip for London with your loved one or your family. Now for a great trip you would need a great place to stay. One that has the apt location and the amazing services that would make your trip worthwhile. You can take a look at the Montcalm London Marble Arch hotel that has served happy guests for over decades now.

The hotel comes with the promise of amazing services that can make your romantic escapades into a fairytale time. The location of the hotel is the exclusive area of Park Lane that serves as a vantage point to explore the city. To enjoy British style hospitality you need to look no further than this hotel. With the packages that the hotel offers you can enhance the experience of your stay. The month of love brings with it special packages designed for couples to rejuvenate and ignite their romance.

The hotel has a superbly stylish location and amenities like a world class Spa that helps you treat yourselves and get pampered. There are amazing couple packages like the 1 hour detox package for couples that costs £149. Now these are discounted rates that are being offered for a limited period of time. Keeping in mind the lovely season of spring there are more packages to explore.

The rooms are meant to give you the privacy you are looking for. with the ultra stylish baths and uber comfy beds come the calm ambience that lets you rediscover you love with your beloved. Family togetherness packages are also available at the Montcalm London Marble Arch where you get to choose from rooms that suit your needs. The children are surprised with gifts and there are activities which they can enjoy while staying at the hotel. Special services like in room movies with ice cream and complimentary buffet breakfast make the family vacation a little more special. Guests can enjoy the pool, gym, and Jacuzzi to keep fit and relax.

The newly opened Sixtyone restaurant and the Champagne Bar at the Montcalm is there to spoil you for delicious cuisines and cocktails. Your evenings and get a smooth turn when you spend the time with your friends or beloved at the bar with the landmarks of the city in the backdrop. The Grand ballroom is all ready and awaiting the presence of your guests so that it can be witness to your life's special moments. The festive season is here and you may as well have a reason to celebrate. With our state of the art decor and technology your events can become the happy moments for life.

Treat yourself with the 1 hour Hot Stone massage with Champagne Afternoon Tea which costs £95 (was £131) for one person. You can avail complimentary breakfast services when you make direct bookings through our official websites or central reservation team on +44(0)20 7479 2233. For further information please visit <http://www.montcalm.co.uk/>

~~~~~

Press release distributed via EPR Network (<http://express-press-release.net/submit-press-release.php>)