PACIFIC BEACHES, Panama, September 18, 2014 -- /EPR NETWORK/ -
- Imagine waking up and enjoying your very own piece of paradise. This beautiful beach home in Costa Esmerelda, Panama, with spectacular views, easy access to the ocean, and plenty of space to entertain, will offer a lush escape to help you relax and enjoy the simple things in life.

This gorgeous home, a mere 20 minutes from the bustling beach town of Coronado, Panama, was built in 2001 and is situated on a 2250 meter squared lot on prime beachfront property. The gated home offers ample space and privacy, with a sprawling courtyard and covered parking. Guests are greeted at the magnificent entry with a cool-blue tiled water feature, an elegant chandelier, and stunning large dark wood doors.

Upon entry, enjoy refreshing ocean breezes and views from nearly every corner of the home, upstairs or down. The spacious main floor features high ceilings, and an open kitchen, dining, and living room. The home is fully decorated and furnished, and natural stone and wood accents throughout contrast with the clean white paint and furniture. The modern kitchen features stainless steel appliances and a long, blue tiled counter with a stunning view of the terrace, swimming pool, lush tropical plants, and ocean beyond.

A sweeping staircase takes you upstairs to the four bedrooms, each with their own in-suite bathroom. Large balcony doors in the bedrooms offer the same unfettered views of the pool and glistening ocean below. AC units are provided to keep the home cool and comfortable.

The large outdoor terrace is easily accessible from the main floor and features plenty of space and seating to accommodate visitors or family. Cool off in the pool, relax and rest on the patio, or just enjoy the tropical foliage and ocean view. Make your tropical paradise dreams a reality and call to learn more today; this gorgeous beach home is priced to sell and won't last long!
