Press Release Body = BiGDUG, the UK's best value online racking and shelving company, has introduced offers on a new range of modular Gratnells tray storage units, exclusively for schools and colleges.

The Gratnells tray storage units boast a fully modular design for optimum flexibility, with a light but strong bumper grade plastic frame. As a result, they're the ideal storage and shelving units for use in a classroom environment - on desks or under benches - complete with castors for easy mobility.

Additionally, schools that take advantage of BiGDUG's introductory prices on Gratnells tray storage will receive their items fully assembled and ready to use on delivery. For a fun twist, Gratnells trays are available in six popular colours, clicking together to form a strong plastic frame that's light and simple to move. Moreover,

Gratnells tray storage system is 100 per cent recyclable - therefore, it is the perfect storage tool for schools and colleges eager to teach their students about the values of the environment.

Doug Nourse, chief executive of BiGDUG, said:

"Our easy to use, low-cost storage bays have always been a hit with primary schools and other educational institutions. And with our exclusive new introductory offers on Gratnells tray storage units, schools and colleges will be able to kill two birds with one stone: by minimising costs and finding a top quality, versatile storage system.

Mr. Nourse added:

"Our Gratnells storage products are also fantastic value when compared to traditional wood or metal framed storage and are fully recyclable - so they adhere entirely to BiGDUG's solid commitment to give something back to the community."

BiGDUG's range of shelving, storage and racking items offer schools and colleges a range of classroom-compatible products, including lockers, shelving storage bays with flip-top boxes and archive shelving, amongst many other shelving and racking items. Furthermore, BiGDUG also constantly updates its product sales, so anyone looking for budget shelving and storage items online will be able to find a range of special offers on its mega deals section, in keeping with BiGDUG's commitment to be the UK's number one provider of low-cost shelving online.
