Press Release Summary: World Champion, Emmy Nominee, and Choreographer of "Dancing with Stars", Louis van Amstel is coming to Dance Republic on October 2nd to give a seminar in Latin American dancing.

Press Release Body: To this day, Louis Van Amstel remains one of the prominent revolutionary advocates in the art of Dancesport today. His unique approach in teaching has, and continues to, produce extraordinary results of dancers all over the world. Trained under life-long dance/acting coach, friend, and mentor, Dr. Ruud Vermeij, Louis is a student of Laban choreology, and is well-versed in human movement dynamics.

Dance Republic is proud to have Louis as visiting coach this October. Come to Dance Republic on October 2nd, 2007 at 7pm to Louis' Master Class in Latin American movement to get a whole new perspective on dancing.

Dance Republic is a Boston-based company dedicated to the competitive training of Ballroom and Latin American dancers. Over the past year, DR produced Junior National Vice Champions, Allen Rudman and Michelle Tuzman, the first ever Boston representatives at Worlds; US pro-am B Champion Ann Thorpe; US National, US Open and North American Professional Rising Star Latin Champions André Strinadko and Olga Kinnard. What a year!

Dance Republic is serious about proper competitive training, stating that it's all about quality and not quantity. This is one of the many reasons why the Harvard Ballroom Team chose Dance Republic trainers to coach their team. Dance Republic is the place for students who want to take their dancing seriously, with their dreams just a lockstep away.

This fall Dance Republic opens its doors for young talents ages five and up. Will your child be the next world champion?
