

GigglePrint.com is Now on MySpace

Released on: March 6, 2008, 7:49 am

Press Release Author: Sondra Stegemann

Industry: Small Business

Press Release Summary: Custom Direct's new online custom printed products venture, Giggleprint.com, has joined the social network MySpace.

Press Release Body: To keep pace with the ever-changing Internet environment, GigglePrint is now on MySpace. After recently joining Facebook, MySpace was the next logical step in online marketing. As social networking continues evolving, GigglePrint will expand its role to remain easily accessible to its customers.

The GigglePrint page will offer special discounts to its friends on MySpace. The page will promote new offers on a regular basis. The photo albums on the profile will feature products of interest to MySpace users, and friends will be notified of new discounts available on the site.

MySpace describes itself as, “an online community that lets you meet your friends' friends.” It’s a network where friends, co-workers, and singles create their own profile page and communicate with others through messaging and sharing photographs. You can find long lost friends or network with individuals that share your interests.

“MySpace is not just for kids anymore,” says John Browning, President of Giggleprint.com. “It is a social platform that is used by people of all ages. It was the next step in building our brand in the realm of Internet marketing. Those customers that are loyal to our brand will find a multitude of discounts on our page and be able to spread the word to their friends and family via the MySpace platform. Being easily accessible to our customers is our ultimate goal.”
