Press Release Body: The Daniel J. Guarino Insurance Agency, a provider of insurance products to the Massachusetts area, has announced they will partner with the Norfolk & Dedham Group of Dedham, Massachusetts and Bridgewater, New Jersey.

Located in Danvers, MA, the Daniel J. Guarino Insurance Agency, Inc, has partnered with The Norfolk & Dedham Group as of March 1st 2008 in order to enhance their service offerings and offer their clients more competitive options in choosing their insurance. In addition to the personal and commercial insurance companies they already work with such as Travelers Insurance and The Vermont Mutual Insurance Group, Norfolk & Dedham will allow the Daniel J Guarino Insurance Agency, Inc to offer even more insurance products and competitive pricing to their clients.

The Norfolk & Dedham Group® consists of three mutual insurance companies founded in New England as early as 1825. They provide property and casualty insurance through hundreds of local independent insurance agents in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maine, New Hampshire, New York and New Jersey.

The Group includes Norfolk & Dedham, Dorchester and Fitchburg. They have corporate office locations in Dedham, MA and Bridgewater, NJ. Norfolk & Dedham's high-quality insurance service and products, technological innovation and financial strength provide the convenience, localized service and financial reliability their policyholders need to protect their family and business assets.

The Agency also recently enhanced its website to include a Massachusetts Auto Reform resources section. This is to provide their clients with important information about the upcoming Massachusetts Auto Reform changes that will go into effect April 1, 2008. This important change will ease state regulations previously imposed on Massachusetts drivers and allow for more competitive car insurance rates.
