Press Release Body: RAHWAY, NEW JERSEY — The opening of the 25,000-square-foot Modernlinefurniture.com

showroom in Rahway, New Jersey, means finding the best in modern contemporary furniture at factory-direct pricing is now even more convenient.

Located at 1296 Lawrence Street, the showroom is open Monday-Saturday from 10a.m. - 4p.m. EST each day. The five-floor facility offers both first-time customers and those familiar with Modernline Furniture's Website the opportunity to casually shop for a collection of leather sofas, sectionals, and sofa beds that can be found on three floors. The retail space also includes a floor with modern bedrooms and designer leather bedrooms, and one floor of dining room furniture and bar furniture.

All furniture displayed is in stock and located at the company's 65,000-square-foot warehouse in Rahway. As a result, customers can pick up furniture or have it delivered in 1-2 days rather than having to wait several weeks to receive their item as with many furniture stores.

Furniture delivery is available anywhere in the continental United States. Orders usually leave the warehouse in 1-2 days, with delivery to any location served in 2-6 business days.

Modernlinefurniture.com offers several advantages to customers looking for the best furniture available that include:

- * A customer satisfaction guarantee that allows for the return of and full refund of any single item purchased that they are not pleased with within 14 days from the date the item was delivered
- * Customer service that is available for customers Monday-Friday from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. EST, by calling 800-637-5596.
