Press Release Summary: Nestled in the rolling hills of Tuscany lined with olive trees and grapevines lies the enchanting town of Lajatico. This charming Italian setting is the background of Realitalia's latest project, Ville degli Olivi.

Press Release Body: With stunning panoramic views of cultivated olive orchards and nearby villages, Ville degli Olivi is an exceptional opportunity for anyone who wants to experience the wonders and convenience of the undiscovered Tuscan countryside while being within a 1 minute walk to the sights and sounds of Lajatico's main square.

Realitalia's Director, Luca Catalano is delighted to present the company's first offering in the area, saying, "It is exceptional to be able to enjoy such a proximity to an historical center but at the same time to have the advantage of such a large olive orchard with uninterrupted view over the fields."

Lajatico is the home of famed cross-over classical singer, Andrea Bocelli. Thanks to a collaboration between Realitalia and Andrea's brother, architect Alberto

Bocelli, the conversion of this rustic building into 5 panoramic apartments and the construction of three additional townhouses will combine the highest dedication of conservation with the same attention to detail and convenience found in all Realitalia projects.

Realitalia creates intelligently designed homes with hidden technology and comfortable amenities that help owners enjoy their homes in ways they never dreamed possible. They offer the unique opportunity to enjoy the freedom of Italian culture with the exclusive privilege of the Realitalia Lifestyle Solutions. This specialty program includes on-site rental management for those who wish to let their home when it is unoccupied. Realitalia takes the stress out of owning a home in the Italian countryside so owners can truly experience the culture, culinary delights, and world-renowned wines Italy has to offer them.

Lajatico is a lovely medieval village in an undiscovered, yet easily accessible Tuscany where every dramatic view looks like the background of a Michaelangelo or DaVinci painting. Resting just 30 minutes from the Pisa airport, it is the perfect base from which to explore the cultural wonders of Italy. As a lesser known region of Tuscany, Lajatico's sandy, winding streets and olive-dotted hills offer the perfect balance between serene privacy and the flurry of Tuscan cultural activity. The Tuscan Riviera is about a thirty minute drive away. Closer to home are the beautiful historic villages of Chianni, and Volterra, with Lajatico resting in the center of the Tuscan triangle of Pisa, Florence, and Siena.

Realitalia is focused on the beauty, elegance, lifestyle solutions of its properties and promotes culturally recognized centers of Italy. Tuscany is known for its fine art museums, intricate architecture, and regional foods. This artistic tradition continues each year at the Teatro del Silenzio in Lajatico. This stunning landscape theater is the site of an annual festival where Andrea Bocelli returns home to perform with other world famous artists. For more information: www.teatrodelsilenzio.com.
