If brothers and sisters can become rich and have the tools to use their riches for themselves and their families, communities will see instant improvement. I am not just talking about "money-rich", but rich in information about health, family, relationships, and positive thinking. This website won't be an "altar call" site and neither will the conference calls. The main topic will be about how to make MONEY, and how to use it to fulfill your purpose down here on this earth."

The Black Family Marketplace is holding its National Conference Calls every Monday at 6:00pm PST. Their first conference call was held on Monday May 5th 2008. "Our program has already begun to receive great reviews on the effectiveness of our conference calls as we have already received calls from registered conference call attendees who are requesting information on some of the services that were discussed", stated Perry. In a statement from Pastor Patience of Dallas, TX she says "This was such an awesome call. I had the call on speaker phone with my young people and they are excited and will be registering for next Monday's call. I am excited with you and for you". In another statement from Mr. Steve Harris, a businessman from Southern California Mr. Harris says "Great call! It was VERY informational. I've been in business for over 20 years and have NEVER heard of some of these ideas."
