Press Release Summary: Broadcasting your brand through online video is one of the best marketing tools in todays advertising and marketing world. Producing an online video can give you extra exposure to your company.

Press Release Body: Tom Cruise thrilled viewers in Top Gun. Harrison Ford saved the day in Air Force One. Leonardo DiCaprio earned rave reviews in The Aviator. And Creative Bube Tube is making their mark, shooting the newest J.E.T. Solutions video.

Creative Bube Tube, a commercial and video production company recently produced the video for Greg Marlo from J.E.T Solutions. Greg is in the aircraft sales, charter, and private aircraft management business. Greg is an Aviation Consultant; and covers all services in flight operations tailoring to his clients every need.

Creative Bube Tube's President a Jenny Munford has been working with Jet Solutions for months, honing the perfect script for Jet Set's first-ever video production. The video shoot took place in the Toronto Pearson International Airport.

"We are so excited that this is happening," Munford said. "This video is going to be very cutting-edge and very fun to shoot. We'll have our cameras set up in the hanger, and on the runway. Even in the planes! The shot list for this shoot is intense, but we're ready for it." Jet Solutions hired the team at Creative Bube Tube to also do some website design and create an effective marketing Campaign for J.E.T. Solutions.

The Luxurious Jets of Jet Solutions and their services are online now!
