Press Release Summary: Viovio, an online community and creative photobook publishing service, announced today that it is now offering an affiliate program

Press Release Body:
Raleigh, NC (July 2008)-Viovio, an online community and creative photobook publishing service, announced today that it is now offering an affiliate program.

The Affiliate Program offers several ways for affiliates to refer people to Viovio through a variety of provided site links and banners "We have a variety of customers who love our products, service, and prices, and our affiliate program allows them to share all this with others." commented Connie Fowler, Co-Founder of Viovio.

You don't need to have a website to become an affiliate and earn cash. Sign-up is quick and easy and payment is sent as soon as the referred member has purchased their first book. Payouts are $5 for every initial purchase, and 5% of additional purchases within 60 days of registration. For more information about the Affiliate program please visit: <http://www.viovio.com/wiki/Affiliate+Program>

About Viovio (www.viovio.com): Founded in 2004, Viovio offers a creative and easy-to-use photo publishing service that allows users to upload photos, completed pages or PDF books, create travel blogs, create photobooks, and exchange information about their favorite places and memorable adventures. More than just a publishing Web site, Viovio is an online community designed for photographers (professional and novice), travel enthusiasts, and those who want to combine the two. Viovio's goal is always to produce on-demand products of exceptional quality with record speed without ever compromising quality, customer service or price. The company offers 300 MB of free photo storage, a capacity that can be upgraded.
