Press Release Summary: Joppa, MD August 11, 2008—Check Gallery promotes the beauty of nature while expanding its check collection with the release of the “Zen Garden” design. The product suite includes personal checks, self-adhesive address labels, personal contact cards, and a checkbook cover that embrace the Asian landscape.

Press Release Body: Known for being environmentally friendly and inspiring a love for nature, Check Gallery is always adding new check designs to enhance its collection. The “Zen Garden” design fits right into the current assortment. By portraying the beauty of some of nature’s finest flowers, this new design will encourage consumers to be more aware of their natural environments.

On August 11, 2008, Check Gallery released the new "Zen Garden" check design through its website, www.checkgallery.com. In four rotating scenes, a white background displays exotic Asian vegetation on these personal checks. Bamboos, Asian water lilies, bonsai trees, and bauhinia trees are all featured in vivid colors and intricate detail. The address labels illustrate these plants against a background of blue with a green border; the personal contact cards present the vivid, purple Asian water lily; and the checkbook cover portrays the beautiful pink flowers of the bauhinia tree as they cascade from the branches.

Check Gallery promotes the well-being and beauty of nature. The addition of the new "Zen Garden" check design will once again introduce the magnificence of our surroundings and encourage people to protect them.
