Press Release Body:
Ashburnham, MA
August 20, 2008 --
Homemakers have the chance to win one of three Watkins natural, plant-based cleaning products.

Melody Thacker an Independent Associate with Watkins, a well known natural product company is holding the celebration and draw.

"We came up with this celebration and draw because we know what a challenge it can be to have a clean, fresh smelling home without using toxic chemicals,” said Melody Thacker, the site owner. “These cleaners will help the winners clean their homes easily, and safely.”

Anyone who meets the criteria for participants is invited to visit our site to enter by subscribing to our newsletter, leaving a friendly comment on one of our articles, or by telling a friend about our site before October 15, 2008.

There are no entry fees. The winners will be chosen by random draw on October 16, 2008.

Three winners will receive one of the following:

- * Watkins Aloe & Green Tea All Purpose Cleaner
- * Watkins Lavender Window Cleaner
- * Watkins Lemon Furniture Polish

As part of our celebration all our subscribers will receive a variety of free, downloadable homemaking guides and check lists to help them get organized, clean safer and make their daily chores easier.
