This user friendly software is actually calculating the 21 game odds for the player while creating a Blackjack Strategy Chart that shows the player what move he should take for each hand combination.

Press Release Body: The latest version of Blackjack Radar was recently released at <http://www.BlackjackRadar.com> after adding new features requested by the growing audience that is using this FREEWARE software.

Gambling lovers all over the world identify 21 Blackjack as one of the most popular Online Casino Games ever. When playing online Blackjack it all comes down to calculating your odds against the House or Casino Dealer and decide on your next move according to your chances to win over the Casino.

"It is basically impossible to calculate the odds in your mind while playing the 21 game and that's why most players make the wrong decision many times and loose the Blackjack hand against the Online Casino" says Greg Smith a product developer at Blackjack Radar.

The revolutionary Blackjack Radar, a FREEWARE software that makes the odds calculations for the player while he plays online 21 and help him make the right move against the house. Players that downloaded this user friendly software, testify that this innovative Strategy Guide actually helped them beat the Internet Casino Dealer.

"Our software allows the player to choose the actual online casino room in which he plays the 21 Blackjack game and by a click of a button gives him a strategy chart calculated based on the specific game rules of the internet casino in which he choose to play" says Greg Smith.

Once the strategy chart appears on the Blackjack Radar Client the player can place it wherever he wishes on the screen so that while playing against the web casino he gets all the time the exact move he should make for each possible combination of cards he has.

94% of the Black Jack specialists that tasted the software before it was released, confirmed that the suggestion of the strategy chart was in line with their own choices during the game.
