Press Release Body: Brookfield, WI - Quest CE the nationwide provider of continuing education and compliance solutions for financial services professionals, today announced it will be moving to new corporate headquarters. The move to new offices in Milwaukee’s Two Park Plaza will accommodate Quest CE’s current staff and make room for expansion to keep pace with the company's vigorous growth.

"Quest CE's service and technology orientation and emphasis on client service have provided a solid foundation for our tremendous growth," said Alan Krenke, Quest CE's President and CEO. "Our continued success relies on our ability to provide products and services that innovate while maintaining the customer service that we are known for. We've developed our new headquarters to be both functional and to inspire so we are able to attract and retain the service-oriented professionals who are central to our continued success."

Quest CE's new headquarters offers a modern and open layout. All combine to create a working environment that fosters creativity and the open exchange of ideas among Quest's staff and between Quest and clients.

Initially, Quest CE is occupying 6,000 square feet of the 18,000 square foot 10th Floor of Two Park Place, with options to expand as the company continues to grow. Quest will begin operating out of its new headquarters on Tuesday, September 2, 2008. The company's new address is:

Two Park Plaza
10850 W Park Place
Suite 1000
Milwaukee, WI 53224
