When it comes to photography, Babylon Wedding Center leaves the competition panting in its wake as it makes large leaps to the summit of quality and accuracy. Take the equipment in use for instance. It proudly makes use of the Nikon D700, fondly known as 'the queen' for its unrivalled versatility in the photography department. Peeking in to its features explains things further: 12.1 mega pixels, shutter speed of 1/8000 to 30 seconds, 5 – 8 frames per second, spot and center weighted metering all compressed into an impressive 995g mass. In short, this gadget assures quality. If you thought that was impressive, put your hands together for the Nikon D3, which the company proudly possesses. Compared to the best cameras currently in the market, this model promises better, more vivid colors by cranking up warm colors against their cool counterparts. In addition to this, the Nikon D3 offers better composition, better highlights and shadows, sharper pictures, wider angles than any other system and an impressive capture of 9 frames per second. To cap the photography aspect, the Nikon Speedlight SB-900 comes into the picture. It has arguable the greatest flash interface, wireless ability a provision for light concentration control. Nothing escapes the eye of our master photography: the butterfly landing on the groom's lapel, the father-daughter dance, cutting of the cake and a few surprises that await you. With Babylon Wedding Center, a picture is worth much more than a thousand words. To this add motion and sound and you can start to imagine the quality of videography here. It is candid wedding photography at its best.
