Press Release Summary: USSA1, a Florida based real estate and mortgage business is online with their new website at ussa1.com that provides consumers and businesses with a wide array of real estate services.

Press Release Body: Florida consumers can take advantage of a library of real estate and mortgage articles along with services to assist them with refinancing, loan modification, distressed properties, title services, document and loan processing and short sale information and negotiation.

Businesses in Florida can avail themselves to USSA1's services that range from mortgage processing and compliance auditing to document management and title services.

With a staff of qualified and trained professionals USSA1 is dedicated to providing its clients with quality and professional services. Their experience and expertise has enabled them to negotiate the best options to help consumers resolve their financial needs and make intelligent decisions about investing in the Florida real estate market.

Their business to business services are backed by a solid foundation of maintaining equitable relationships with their partners and helping businesses to offer the best in mortgage and real estate services to the general public.

The website design is very user friendly and is set up to provide solutions for consumers and businesses. It is broken down into four areas: Why Use Us, What We Do, Free Access and Get in Touch. Why Use Us provides the latest information and professional services for consumers, lenders and brokers as well as Realtors.

"Clients will find a number of free member benefits from publication information, article searches, document locations and more in the Free Access pages of the website" said Regina Rivard the Operations manager.

USSA1's What We Do pages showcases materials and information businesses need to help their clients handle all of their real estate and mortgage functions.

Members will be able to reach a USSA1 professional via email, phone, fax and live chat on their Get in Touch page.

Their website also has a blog that allows for clients to interact with professionals and stay up to date on the latest real estate and mortgage trends for the state of Florida.

The consumer services are designed for non-professional and do-it-yourself real estate investors, providing information about short sales, foreclosures, loan modifications, refinancing, title services and Realtors in cities throughout Florida while their business services seeks to help professionals provide their clients with better service as well as the latest changes in the mortgage and real estate industries.

With corporate offices located in Apollo Beach, Florida, USSA1 serves the entire state of Florida with the promise to increase client benefits and show value in all the services they offer. Their services, along with a dedicated staff, produce some of the best results in the real estate and mortgage industries throughout the state of Florida.
