Thomas Sanderson, Europe's largest manufacturer and supplier of window blinds and shutters, has announced a three for two offer across its entire range of window blinds and shutters, as part of its annual 2009 spring sale.

For every two blinds or shutters bought during the spring sale, customers can choose a third at no extra cost. Thomas Sanderson boasts the largest selection of blinds and shutters in the UK, giving customers the choice of conservatory blinds, window blinds, stained and painted shutters and sunroom blinds, in over 1000 colours, styles and finishes.

Ian Bayne, Marketing Manager at Thomas Sanderson, commented: "The new spring sale is a fantastic opportunity for customers to freshen up their homes this spring with the perfect blinds for every room in their home."

Among the styles of blind on offer in the sale are pleated, wood, metal venetians, Roman pinoleum and interior shutters. Conservatory blinds, which are also included in the sale, have been designed by Thomas Sanderson so that every blind fits snugly into the window frame, allowing windows and doors to be opened even if the blinds are down.

Any customer taking advantage of the spring offers will receive a free consultation with a Thomas Sanderson designer who will guide the customer through all the options and styles that suit their home before providing a free, no obligation quotation.
