

J and J Luxury Resorts Announces Affiliation With Long-standing Luxury Resort Corporation

Released on: March 12, 2009, 5:24 am

Author: Jeff Gante

Industry: Travel

Jeff Gante is excited to announce his affiliation with a long-standing luxury resort corporation that offers its private members the highest standards in luxury style accommodations.

York, Pa 11, March, 2009 – Jeff Gante announces the opening of his home-based business, J and J Luxury Resorts. He contracts as an independent affiliate with a large corporation that offers luxury resort accommodations to those who choose to join their private vacation membership. They provide deep discounts for weekly rentals of timeshare properties, luxury condos, beach resorts, and other vacation home options to people who take advantage of their low one-time membership opportunity: <http://vacation.jandjluxuryresorts.com>.

Gante independently represents a luxury vacation Corporation that has been in operation for over 20 years, offering the highest standards of luxury vacation accommodations at thousands of worldwide resort locations. They offer their prestigious memberships solely through independent contractors like Gante. After a one-time membership fee, much lower than most investments needed to acquire a timeshare property, members are granted access to luxury beach resorts, ski resorts, golf resorts, mountain resorts, and other four and five star vacation spots. Platinum members are granted a lifetime of luxury vacations, as many weeks per year as they'd like, for weekly rates of 50% to 90% below industry standards.

The average resort condo may include a large living room, full kitchen, a king-sized bed, spacious bathrooms, and a balcony with a view. Pools, Jacuzzis, game rooms, family activities, fitness centers are not uncommon. If there is an attraction somewhere in the world that you want to visit, you will probably be able to reserve a luxury resort spot near there with your private membership.

This private membership is available to all classes of people. It is deliberately made affordable so that anyone can enjoy time away from his or her normally hectic life in the most relaxing way possible.

It is a great alternative to those considering a timeshare purchase. They could save thousands of dollars in up front costs. But if they were going to purchase a less expensive timeshare property, they would still save on annual fees and be able to take advantage of limitless yearly weeks by choosing this vacation membership instead.
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=I9Z6YoX54x4>

It would appeal to professionals who might normally choose a new resort area each year or several times a year, paying as much as $3000 for a one week stay so they can vacation in style. With this membership, a person only pays that much once for a lifetime membership, and then pays weekly rates between $300 and $700 for life afterwards for high-end resort accommodations.

Lastly, this vacation club should lure the average working person who is tired of the same old vacation in average hotels or the least expensive cottage rental they could find at the Shore. Once they pay the one-time membership fee, they can finally enjoy luxury vacations for even less than what they would pay at a roadside motel.

Gante is proud to be able to represent this unparalleled vacation opportunity and looks forward to your inquiries at his home website:<http://vacation.jandjluxuryresorts.com>.

If you have questions, don't hesitate to contact Jeff Gante through the email address available on his website. However, the information you find at J and J Luxury Resorts will be exhaustive. The vacation membership opportunity will speak for itself. You will be able to join immediately when you see the value presented.

About J and J Luxury Resorts:

It is the home-based business creation of Jeff Gante and his fiancé Jamie. After exposure to various online business opportunities over the years, Gante sees this membership as the best product he has come across made available to independent affiliates like him. He is proud of the business integrity he recognizes from his corporate association.

Contact Details: Jeff Gante

67 Dolomite Dr.
York, Pa. 17408
908-456-7185

jandjluxuryresorts@yahoo.com

<http://vacation.jandjluxuryresorts.com>

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=I9Z6YoX54x4>