Great heavy snows see ski fans making for late breaks to the pistes

31 March 2010 – Excellent snow levels in popular resorts across Europe and North America is leading ski fans to take late breaks to enjoy the best snows of the season, and award-winning car hire website Carrentals.co.uk can help travelers save money thanks to hire offers from just £8* a day at Gerona Airport. The deals are tailor-made for late ski breaks.

The price comparison site is offering ski fans car hire from just £17* per day at Bergamo Airport, £21* a day in Salzburg, £15* a day when collecting from Zaragoza Airport and £17* a day at Turin Airport.

Gareth Robinson, managing director of Carrentals.co.uk, says: "Many of Europe's best resorts are experiencing great late snows this season, and so ski buffs are heading for the slopes whether or not they've had a ski holiday already this year. We're advising people to compare prices online though to be sure of getting the best deals."

"On Carrentals.co.uk we compare and review prices offered by dozens of leading car hire suppliers to offer customers the best deals all on one website. We like to assist people when travelling by saving them money. So on top of us advising advance booking of cars, we also counsel reserving optional extras like snow chains, child seats and sat navs before travelling to avoid disappointment."

Carrentals.co.uk compares car hire deals from up to 50 rental companies, including Alamo, Budget, easyCar, Holiday Autos and Sixt, in over 9,000 locations worldwide.
